SUPPLEMENT

This document is hereby regarded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the United States

1. Major General Fang Fang (方芳), former Communist representative of Executive Headquarters Truce Team No. 8, is at present continuing Communists operations in Hongkong and Macao. Fang Fang's main job is to organize and establish the Communist forces in various hsien in the South Route Area of Kwangtung Province.

2. According to reliable reports, Fang has divided the South Route Area into various districts of operations:

- a. Hopu-Lingshan District (109-10, 21-38; 109-14, 22-24).
- b. Haikang-Hsuewen District (110-05, 20-55; 110-07, 20-25).
- c. Ch'inhcien-Haiphong District (108-37, 21-58; ....).
- d. Laoming-Tienpai District (110-53, 21-45; 111-21, 21-20).
- e. Wuch'uan-Huahsien District (110-38, 21-15; 110-39, 21-31).
- f. Lienchiang-Guichi District (110-16, 21-56; 110-15, 21-23).

3. In the above mentioned six districts, Hsuewu-Lingshan District contains the most powerful Communist force. Headquarters of the South Route Liberation Army is located in the district. Commander-in-chief of the headquarters is Hung Nien (洪年), a native of Ssu-I (蘇伊) (Inying, Taishan, Hsin-hui and Kaiping hsien are known as Ssu-I). His forces are divided as follows:

- a. First Detachment -- Commander: Liang Chen-wei
- b. Second Detachment -- Commander: Teng Tsh-ching
- c. Third Detachment -- Commander: Su Hsien-shu
- d. Hopu Detachment -- Commander: Chang Shih-chin
- e. Fourth Regiment -- Commander: Ch'en Ning

(The organization of the detachment is almost the same as a regiment in the Chinese Nationalist Army).

4. A commanding post has also been established by the South Route Liberation Army Headquarters in Leichou Peninsula area. Commander of this post is Ch'en Ming-nien (陳明年), a native of Hsinhui (113-03, 22-31). Under his command are:

The Leichou (Haikang) Detachment:

Commander: T'ang Ts'ai-yu (唐才猷), alias Fu-sheng (福升).

Assistant Commander: Mo Ts'an-hui (莫燦輝).

Regimental Commander: Huang Ch'i-liu (黃其柳).

5. Ch'inhcien-Haiphong District: The South Route Liberation Army Independent Detachment is located in this district. Commander: Wang I (王義).

6. Maoming-Tienpai District:

South Route Liberation Army Independent Regiment. Regimental Commander: Chang Tzu-ts'ai (張子才).

Wuch'uan-Huahsien District:

South Route Liberation Army Fourth Division.

Divisional Commander: Chang Ch'i-pin (張錦屏).

Assistant Divisional Commander: Chang I-ho (張一和).

First Detachment Commander: Li I-ming (李一鳴).

7. LiENCHIANG-SUICHI District:

South Route Liberation Army Third Regiment. Regimental Commander: Mo Wei (莫偉).

8. All detachments and regiments are then divided into guerrilla units, battalions, etc. All units operate on the self-supply basis; thus their movements are unpredictable. Villages are raided for goods and supplies. Whenever National troops attack them, these Communists retreat and concentrate in the Shih-wan-ta-shan area. (108..., 22...).

9. General Fang has organized all the Communists in Hongkong. Under the "protection" of the British colony, he has had several secret meetings with Ts'ai T'ing-kai (蔡廷鍇), head of the Democratic Promotion Party, and Li Cheng-ta (李承泰), head of the Peoples League and has contacted members of all other democratic societies. He has made two secret trips to Macao, to expand Red operations in the area. Recently the Democratic League has come out openly in Macao and is spreading anti-Nationalists propaganda in the city.
